Chapter 21

WILLIAM LAYTON (LATEN)

Sometime between 1831 and 1840 several Layton families, probably all related, migrated to Simpson County, MS. The oldest was William Layton b ca 1800, SC; Moses Layton b ca 1801, SC; and Charles Layton, b ca 1840. The 1850 Census of Simpson County indicates that all three were born in South Carolina. By 1850 Charles W., James, Margaret, Moses (Moss), and William Layton were listed as heads of household. Moses and Charles were living adjacent to each other; William Layton was not far away. It is highly probable that most of the Laytons in Simpson County today descend from these three early pioneers, probably brothers; however, there is no proof of this relationship.

E. ~~86~~ Joseph Layton b Feb 1838, MS, d 1 Dec 1914 m ca 1865, Simpson Co, MS, to Winnie Jane Ross Palmer, b Jan 1844, widow of William Jacob Palmer, dau of Thomas Ross and Winney Moore. "Grandpa Joe," as he was known, served in Company H of the Sixth Mississippi Regiment in the Civil War. His military records indicates that he enlisted on 1 August 1861, in Simpson Co, MS and was wounded in the thigh on 6 March 1862 at the Battle of Shilow. Joseph was to later surrender to the Federal forces when Vicksburg fell on July 3, 1863. He returned to his unit following his "parole" at Vicksburg, fought with Company H of the 6th Regiment until the close of the War and surrendered with his complete unit at Citronelle, Alabama.<sup>1</sup>

By 1870 "Grandpa Joe" and Winnie Jane Ross Palmer Layton were living in the old Fayette hill community and had two children of their own. With them was Thomas Jefferson "Tom" Palmer, Jane's only child from her marriage to William Jacob Palmer. Family tradition has it that it was young Joseph Layton who informed Winnie Jane that her husband "Jake" Palmer had died in the Civil War. Young Joe was to later marry the young widow and raised Tom Palmer as his own. (1870 Census, Simpson Co, MS, #30)

Joseph Layton applied for a pension on 6 Sept, 1897. Winnie Jane later applied for a widow's pension on 20 June 1924, age 81. Issue:

Marriage in a country store

MARIE LANGLOIS
Herald Staff Writer

Because he "loves" the country store in the neighborhood where he was raised and where he worked as a youngster, he asked the proprietors if he could be married there.

They agreed. The bride agreed.

It was a spur-of-the moment decision when Lester L. Layton Jr., the former grocery boy now a construction worker, called Mrs. Dale Cross of Cross Grocery and asked if she minded if he and his bride-to-be held their wedding there.

Thirty minutes later, the ceremony took place in the friendly warmth of the store, at the west end of 28th Street in Harrison County, with a few family members and close friends gathered to share the occasion.

His bride, Hazel Stone of Raleigh, N. C., an independent newspaper carrier for The Sun, thought the idea a good one.

Mrs. Cross said Lester called on Saturday, April 4, and asked permission to hold the wedding at the store. A half hour later, at 7:15 p.m., the ceremony took place.

There wasn't time to plan a reception. It will be held later.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. V. Miller, pastor of the Riverside Baptist Church, with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Sr., serving the couple as best man and matron of honor.

The bride, who wore a dark red pant suit with wine colored blouse, carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

After the ceremony, bride and groom and guests sat around the store and talked for awhile.

Then it was time for the bride to go. So she left for her job, delivering the Sunday morning paper.

The honeymoon, like the reception, will be later.

The couple is residing on Leggett Road in Gulfport.
